Mainpine® RockForce™ Fax Boards Supported by GFI® FAXmaker™

Leading Fax Server for Microsoft Exchange, Lotus Notes and SMTP Servers Certified with RockForce™ Intelligent Fax Card Line — Gives Generic Modem Users an “Enterprise-Class” Fax Hardware Option at an Affordable Price

PORTLAND, Oregon — May 1, 2006 — Mainpine® Inc., an innovator in the global intelligent fax hardware arena, and GFI, a leader in messaging, network and content security software, today announced GFI FAXmaker for Exchange/SMTP supports the RockForce™ intelligent fax board product line. The combination of Mainpine's intelligent fax cards with GFI FAXmaker brings organizations traditionally budget constrained and forced to settle for generic modems a much more powerful, reliable and secure fax hardware alternative at an affordable price.

“For those unable to invest the financial resources in enterprise-class fax hardware, these organizations now have an exceptional price to performance option,” said Stephen Nolan, GFI Sales Manager. “We look forward to collaborating with Mainpine to further accelerate our reach into the small-to-mid-sized markets.”

“We are thrilled to be able to work with GFI FAXmaker's solution as they are an industry leader in the network fax arena,” said Lloyd Johnson, president and CEO of Mainpine, Inc. “The GFI FAXmaker/Mainpine combination ensures high-quality, high-performance fax transmissions that budget modems simply are unable to provide.”

About GFI FAXmaker for Exchange/SMTP

GFI FAXmaker for Exchange/SMTP is a leading network fax server. It integrates with Exchange Server, Lotus Notes and popular SMTP servers, allowing users to send and receive faxes and SMS/text messages directly from their email client. By leveraging the organization's email infrastructure and Active Directory, GFI FAXmaker achieves unparalleled scalability, reliability and hassle-free administration. GFI FAXmaker for Exchange/SMTP 12 pricing is highly competitive, with a 50-user version costing USD 1999 and USD 5995 for unlimited users. GFI FAXmaker is the recipient of numerous industry awards including most recently MExchange.org Readers' Choice Award and the Windows IT Pro (formerly known as Windows & .NET Magazine) Readers Choice Award for 3 years running.
